 Court's or Judge's Orders

 Mr. Chandurkar, Adv. for the petitioner.
 Mr. Sundaram, Adv. for the respondents.

CORAM: A. B. CHAUDHARI, J
DATED : 22nd June 2007

The present application has been taken out by the petitioner for extension of time in depositing the amount in question.

The request is opposed to by the learned counsel for the respondents.

In my view, since the petitioner has volunteered to deposit the amount within six weeks, it would be in the interest of justice to allow the application. The application is, therefore, allowed. Time to deposit the amount is extended by another six weeks.

Mr. Chandurkar, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of present writ petition, the Office of the Assistant Provident Funds Commissioner, Akola has now been established and this statement is not disputed by the learned counsel for the respondents. The learned counsel, therefore, submits that the remand order made by this Court, now will have to apply to the said Office. Hence, I direct the Assistant Provident Funds Commissioner, Akola instead of Assistant Provident Funds Nagpur to decide the matter as per the directions issued by this Court.
